

Save the date - Journée Scientifique

The PLAS@PAR Scientific Day will take place on November 28, 2025.
The venue will be announced soon, but be sure to save the date now.

The program includes tutorials, technical presentations, and poster sessions, all focused on plasma research and its many applications.

The best posters will receive a prize!

This event is a key opportunity to discover the latest advances in the field, exchange ideas, and foster new collaborations. You will receive more informations soon.

2025 Photo Contest

Let images speak, reveal plasma in a new light.

The 2025 edition of the PLAS@PAR photo contest is now open!

Through this contest, the federation celebrates the aesthetic, creativity, and visual richness that plasma research inspires.

The goal:

To build a gallery of inspiring images that offer a fresh perspective on this fourth state of matter.

Could your photo be the highlight of this edition?

Prize:

A jury will select the most striking photo, and the winner will receive an E-Paper tablet — a digital device with a screen that mimics the appearance of paper. It features a non-backlit display, readable in direct sunlight, and energy-efficient, making it ideal for reading books, taking notes, or viewing documents without eye strain.

Submit your plasma-themed photo by November 14, 2025 to the following email address: ramja.sivanathan@sorbonne-universite.fr

Find all participation details on the dedicated webpage.

The PLAS@PAR booth is ready and waiting for you at Fête de la Science and Explo'Espace

Just a reminder: PLAS@PAR will take part in the Science Fair from October 10 to 12, and students and postdocs who volunteer to help run the booth will receive a small gift as a token of appreciation!
